

FACULTY POSITION AVAILABLE
TENURE-TRACK ASSISTANT PROFESSOR
LAW, CRIME & DEVIANCE

UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA
DEPARTMENT OF SOCIOLOGY

The Department Sociology at the University of Minnesota invites applications for a full-time, nine-month position for a scholar specializing in the area of Law, Crime, and Deviance, beginning fall 2013 (August 26, 2013). Appointment will be at the rank of tenure-track assistant professor.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES: Candidates will be expected to participate in both the undergraduate and graduate curricula, to maintain an active research agenda, and contribute to service appropriate to the appointment rank. Salary is competitive.

REQUIRED/PREFERRED QUALIFICATIONS: A Ph.D. in Sociology or a related field is required. Advanced ABD's may be considered for appointment at the rank of tenure-track instructor, with the understanding that the Ph.D. is conferred in the first year of appointment. We will favor candidates whose dossiers demonstrate scholarly distinction, a record of publication and teaching commitment. Applicants will be evaluated based on the following criteria: research excellence and relevance to the field, teaching effectiveness, and service.

APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS: Please apply online via the UMN Employment System at <https://employment.umn.edu/applicants/Central?quickFind=104059>. At the employment site, you will click at the top or bottom of the page on "APPLY FOR THIS POSTING," and follow the instructions to upload a cover letter, curriculum vita, samples of written work, and evidence of teaching effectiveness or a commitment to teaching. This material must be uploaded by October 1, 2012.

In addition to the material submitted electronically, applicants are asked to arrange for THREE letters of recommendation to be sent directly to the department.

The letters of recommendation may be e-mailed to soclcd@umn.edu or mailed directly to:
